

Palm Beach County Horseman's Association (PBCHA) Rules and Regulations

USEF: PBCHA adopts the USEF Rulebook as its own, except where noted below.

Equine Zero Liability: Florida Senate Bill 1658 Equine Zero Liability Statute: Warning-Under Florida Law an equine activity sponsor or equine professional is not liable for injury to, or death of, a participant in equine activities resulting from the inherent risk of equine activities.

Each Horse and Rider combination must have their own number. In cases where a second rider will be riding the same horse in a warmup class only, the 2nd rider may use the first number assigned and the office and medic fees may be waived provided the office has been notified of the second rider. If the office is not notified, all fees will be charged.

Membership: Mandatory for riders, owners, and trainers. Fathers/Mothers who enter Father's/Mother's Day Lead Line do not need to be members but must sign a waiver.

Individual membership: $60/year

Family membership: $80/year

The age of the rider will be determined by their birthday on December 1st.

Show Pass Fee: If you choose not to become a member of PBCHA you can pay a $10 Show Pass Fee, but you WILL NOT accrue points.

Class Fees: $15 per class

Handy Hunter/Add back Jumper Classes: $25 ($10 per entry is used for prize money) (1st 40%; 2nd 30%; 3rd 20%; 4th 10%)

Online Entries Required: All entries must be made through showgroundslive.com no later than the Monday before the scheduled show at midnight. A $25 late fee will be charged to any entry made after that date. This includes paper entries made the weekend of the show.

Special Event Class Fees:

Father's Day Lead Line: FREE

Mother's Day Lead Line: FREE

Office Fee: Each horse/rider combination will be charged a $30 office fee. This is waived for the Child and Father's Day lead line class if horse/pony to be used is showing same weekend.

Medic Fee: A $30 MANDATORY medic fee will be assessed for each horse/rider combination. This medic fee includes Friday schooling for FREE. This is waived for the Child and Father's Day lead line class if horse/pony to be used is showing same weekend.

Sat/Sun Schooling Fees:

Saturday: $20 per horse and rider combo Sunday: $20 per horse and rider combo

Back numbers must be worn in order to school. Exhibitors found schooling without a back number will be assessed an additional $25 fee.

Grounds Fee: All non-stabling entries will be charged a fee of $40.

Adds: Entries will close at 5:00 pm the day before the show starts. After the show starts adds will be charged a $25 fee per horse if no classes have been entered. Class changes will not be charged.

Scratches: Scratches will not be charged but must be done in the show office. Stall, Grounds, Office, and Schooling fees will not be refunded.

Found in Class Not Entered: Any exhibitor found showing in a class not entered will be charged a $25 fee in addition to the class fee.

Cross Entering: Any exhibitor found cross entering will pay a $25 fee in addition to the class fees and forfeit the points for the lower height class.

Schooling: Back number must be worn in order to school. Any exhibitor found schooling without a back number will be assessed an additional $25 fee.

Schooling is available on Friday from 12 noon until 5:30pm in all rings.

Schooling on Saturday and Sunday will be available from 7-7:30am in the Novice and Advanced rings only. When special events are held on Sunday am, the ring where the event is to occur will not be open for schooling.

Stalls: Stalls are available on a first come first serve basis by calling/texting Joni Livingston at: 561-248-3647. A fee of $80 will be charged for weekend stabling. Bedding is not included.

Found in Stall Not Paid: A $25 stall fee will be assessed in addition to the $80 stall fee if a stall is used which has not been paid for.

Stall Watch: Stall watch is mandatory for each exhibitor, $5.00 per night.

Non-Negotiable Funds: A warning and $30 fee will be charged for each non-negotiable check or declined credit card.

Cancellation of Classes: If classes are cancelled due to severe weather, management will refund class fees.

Check Out Policy: Members may pay with cash, check or credit card. Exhibitors who do not check out in the office or online will have their show account closed out within one hour of the show closing. Show bills are final 24 hours after the show closes.

Billing Disputes: Any open invoices will be closed by the office staff at the end of the show with the method of payment holding the entry. It is the exhibitor's responsibility to review their bill and resolve any discrepancies within one hour of the show ending. If disputes are not resolved within this time frame, the bill will stand as is without any further review.

Refund Policy: Cancellations of show entries must be made by 5pm on the Friday before a show for a full refund. Class fees are refundable only if a class is cancelled. No other fees are refundable after 5pm on Friday before show. This includes, but is not limited to, stall fees, schooling, medic, office and class fees. Scratch, bandit stall and bandit class fees are not refundable.

Coggins: All exhibitors are responsible for keeping a valid Coggins available to PBCHA and Health Inspectors.

Daily Awards and Championships: Warm up classes are not pinned, and no ribbons or prizes will be awarded. Daily ribbons are awarded for each class. Champions are awarded an additional prize. Hunter champion and reserve champion ribbons are awarded at the completion of the Division; either each show day or after two days of accumulating points. Champions are awarded an additional prize. Points are awarded as follows: 7, 5, 4, 3, 2, 1 when there are at least 3 entered in a class. If there are 2 entered, 1st place earns 4 points and 2nd place earns 2 points. If there is only 1 entered, they will be awarded 3 points.

Splitting Sections In the Novice ring, classes will be split at 12 entries or more using the California Split judging system.

Class Conflicts: Trainers must work with the in-gate staff to avoid any delay of classes due to conflicts. If there is a conflict, the in-gate staff will give the trainer 3 minutes to contact them regarding resolution of the conflict. If the trainer fails to contact the in-gate staff within those 3 minutes, then the class will be run without the trainer.

Holding Rings: The Novice ring will be held for the trainer for ALL classes. The Advanced ring will be held for the trainer for over fences classes only.

Prize Money: Prize money will be credited to the exhibitor's show account after the results of the class are posted, thereby ending the show's responsibility.

Series Awards: Horses and riders must have entered the same division at 3 shows to be eligible to win a series award. Awards will be given to Hunter and Equitation Divisions. Spring series will consist of the April, May, and June show. Fall series will consist of September, October, and November show. Entries must have shown in entire division to receive award, not just U/S.

Year End Awards: Horses and riders must have entered 4 shows in the same division to be eligible to win a year end award for that division. Hunter points are awarded to the horse. Equitation and medal points are awarded to the rider. The horse or rider earning the most points in their division and in their ring, will be awarded High Point. Lead Line, Walk Trot and Cross Rails divisions are not eligible for High Point awards. Exhibitors are responsible for checking the accuracy of their points on www.showgroundslive.com. Points must be checked for accuracy and disputed by December 3rd of current show year. Entries must have shown in entire division to receive award, not just U/S.

Comportment: Show attendees are notified that any act of discourtesy or disobedience to the Judges, show staff, PBCHA members or their family and friends, on the part of any owner, rider, trainer, or family member, may disqualify the rider or horse. No fees will be refunded due to disqualification.

Complaints: Complaints against the behavior of any show attendee may be made in the show office with a written statement. The written statement must include all relevant information for the Board to investigate; including where and when the incident occurred and any possible witnesses. The PBCHA board will then investigate the complaint and make a ruling. If a show attendee is found to display a lack of comportment, the show attendee will be given one warning. If there is a second offense, the person will not be allowed on the show grounds during that show year. The Board's determination is final.

Attire: All riders must wear an ASTM/SEI approved helmet with the chin strap closed while mounted anywhere on the show grounds. Boots, breeches, jackets, and shirt with choker or ties are required in the hunter and equitation classes. Jackets, unless otherwise announced will be required.

Back Numbers: You must wear the back number provided by the show office. Failure to wear your back number during schooling will result in a forfeiture of schooling. Failure to wear your back number during a class will result in disqualification. No refunds will be issued.

Hors Concours: No entries will be allowed to show un-judged except at the discretion of the show manager.

Judging and Coaching: Do not approach the judges for any reason. If you have a question for the judge, fill out a request form in the Show Office. The form will be given to the judge at the end of the show day. It is at the judge's discretion whether they will answer your questions. Do not coach from the side of the ring. You may be disqualified by the judge if they hear or see you coach while the rider is in the ring. Management reserves the right to discipline any trainer who is excessively coaching.

Bedding: Order bedding with your stall reservation from Joni Livingston at 561-248-3647. Shavings are provided through the venue from their approved vendor. The charge for shavings is $9.00 per bag. No other bedding vendor will be allowed on the show grounds. Storage of bedding must be outside or inside of a stall only.

Horse Show Farrier: Please contact the show office if you need a farrier. A farrier will either be on call or on the show grounds. Dogs: Dogs are not permitted to be loose anywhere on the show grounds and must be on a leash or otherwise contained. Dogs may not be led by horseback or by any vehicle (e.g., golf cart, bicycle etc.). Dog owners failing to follow this rule will receive one warning. The second offense will carry a fine of $50 per dog. The third offense will result in the owner being asked to leave the show grounds with their dogs. Show fees will not be refunded.

Golf Carts, Scooters, and other Vehicles: Only those with a valid driver's license may operate a motorized vehicle on the show grounds. If a minor has a permit, they may operate a motorized vehicle if an adult with a valid license is in the vehicle. No ponying of dogs or horses via golf cart is allowed. Cars and trucks in the in-gate areas are restricted to the medic on call. All other vehicles must be parked in appropriately marked parking areas. All vehicles should be operated in a safe manner so as not to cause any distractions that might or could reasonably cause a horse to spook creating a dangerous situation to the horse and rider.

Cell phones and Headphones: The use of headphones while riding is prohibited. Cell phones may be used only if the rider has stopped the horse and is out of the way of other horse/vehicle traffic. Quiet Zones: The areas around the rings where horses are warming up or competing are quiet zones. Riders, Trainers, and Spectators should refrain from causing any distractions that might, or could reasonably, cause a horse to spook creating a dangerous situation to the horse or rider. Restricted Areas: Riders on horseback, scooters, bicycles, and skateboards are not permitted on the concrete deck where the office and restrooms are located.

Protest of a Class: Any exhibitor lodging a protest of a class must first deposit $25 in the show office along with a written complaint. The Board will meet and decide the outcome of the complaint. Their decision is final. The $25 fee will be refunded if the complaint is upheld.
